EFFECTIVE NEGOTIATION ON LINE WORKSHOP

Instructor: dott.ssa E. A. Merzagora

What is meant by "negotiation"? A simple discussion between people who are trying to reach a compromise? A battle in which only a part is the winner and "takes it all"? Or is negotiation something more complex?

"In business and in life,
you don't get what you deserve, you get what you negotiate."
- Chester L. Karrass

Negotiations occur in business, in politics, and in personal everyday life. How to get better results? This workshop, thanks to a theoretical approach supported by practical exercises and role plays, will give participants the opportunity to recognize as well as to practice the many tactics used in negotiation, to identify and manage various obstacles, and will help participants to acquire the fundamental attitude to lead an effective negotiation.

Topics covered:

- What are the main negotiating situations? What the motivation to negotiate and what the potential obstacles?
- Negotiation steps: how to optimize any single phase, from the preparation to the final commitment.
- The language of negotiation: fostering active and long-lasting relations and creating an open and respectful environment using both verbal and non verbal communication.
- How to avoid the traps that prevent effective negotiation and lead to conflict.
- Recognising our emotions and controlling behaviour in a variety of negotiation situations.
- Knowing how to use the most used negotiation tactics (Nibble, Highball/Lowball, Frame manipulation ...) and adapting them to the counterpart's style.
